

Jean McKen

I Am Song, Je Suis Chanson

Jean McKen

Hon Mus. Bach., B.Ed., MSMT

Jean McKen is the composer and lyricist of this winning submission to the CMEA/ACME 50th anniversary song competition. She is a former classroom music teacher who specializes in training teachers and composers to use music technology to enhance their teaching and learning experiences.

Jean is also the founder and developer of Breezin' Thru™ Theory, an innovative new theory and composition online product that has recently been launched as a curriculum tool for grades 7-12.

Unison, SSA and SAB arrangements of this song are available for sale on the Breezin' Thru Theory website. The cost of I Am Song is $1.50 per octavo with a minimum purchase of 10 copies.

To place an order, contact Jean McKen by phone at 416-476-8014 or by email at jmcken@breezinthrutheory.com

I Am Song, Je Suis Chanson

I lift the veil of fog and blow it out to sea
Wisdom is my guide unlocking mystery
And if you walk in darkness I'll lead you to the sun
You can see me if you listen
You can feel me with your heart
You can let my music shape your destiny

*I am song
Je suis chanson
Join my chorus and know that you belong
From sea to sea
Vous êtes libre
Take my hand
Walk the land with me
Come and share this melody*

I send a mighty breeze through maples rising high
Dancing with the leaves my music fills the sky
In the magic of the moment when words cannot be found
You can let me say it for you
You can hear me in the wind
I'm the answer that can shape your destiny

*I am song
Je suis chanson
Savoir que c'est votre patrie
From sea to sea
Vous êtes libres
Take my hand
Walk the land with me
Come and share this melody*

We'll travel prairie roads and touch the northern skies
Over mighty rockies hear the music rise
And if we dare to journey we'll find we all belong
You can hear us sing together
We'll be standing arm in arm
And together we can share our destiny

*We are song
Nous sommes chanson
Savoir que c'est votre patrie
From sea to sea
Vous êtes libres
Prenez ma main marchez le domaine
We are one and we are song!*